The Legendary Ida Haendel in Concert

PORTLAND, Ore., May 3, 2013 – Legendary violinist Ida Haendel appears in concert at The Old Church on May 23, at 7:30 p.m. The concert is produced in partnership with All Classical 89.9 and 45th Parallel.

The evening concert of music by Haendel and pianist Misha Dacic includes George Enescu's Sonata No. 3, Op. 25; Robert Schumann's Sonata No. 2; and Ernest Bloch's "Nigun" from Baal Shem. Haendel will also be on hand for conversation from the stage.

Haendel was born in 1928 in Eastern Poland. Her 1937 London debut under the baton of Sir Henry Wood brought her worldwide critical acclaim, and began a lifelong association with The Proms, where she appeared 68 times. Haendel's highly emotive performances have paved the way for modern day superstars Anne-Sophie Mutter, Midori, Hilary Hahn and others.

Tickets, $25 for general admission and $20 for student/seniors, are available at the door the evening of the event, or at www.boxofficetickets.com or www.45thparallelpdx.org. Arts for All tickets are also available. Details at this link: <http://racc.org/artsforall/>.

All Classical Portland is Portland, Oregon's classical radio station. Established in 1983, our mission is to advance knowledge of and appreciation for classical music; to build and sustain culturally vibrant local and global communities around this art form; to reflect the spirit of the Pacific Northwest; and to foster integrity, quality, and innovation in all that we do. For more information, visit www.allclassical.org.

45th Parallel, founded in 2009, is a nonprofit celebrating musicians of the Pacific Northwest. With emphasis on small ensembles and creative programming, 45th Parallel seeks to bring Portland's rich chamber music culture out of the living room and onto the stage.
