Major Milestone Announced

PORTLAND, Ore., May 10, 2011—All Classical 89.9 FM, KQAC, a non-profit 24-hour classical music station serving the Pacific Northwest, announced the conclusion of a 6 year project, a 13% power increase, expanding coverage range by approximately 12 miles, while also improving reception within the Portland/Vancouver coverage area.

To prevent interference between radio stations, power is tightly regulated by the Federal Communications Commission. After a required treaty review with Canada, KQAC is now increased to 6,000 watts, and is also protected from encroachment by other radio stations in the suburbs.

“I now get a clear signal and am able to listen to my favorite radio station through my speakers as opposed to streaming on my computer,” stated Gerry Federico, All Classical FM Board of Director. Federico added, “I never thought this would be possible given how my condo is situated in the trees. Thanks to all that made this possible.”
