Talented Threesome Added to All Classical Public Media Board

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12, 2011 – All Classical Public Media, Inc., which operates All Classical 89.9 FM, a non-profit 24-hour classical music station serving Oregon and Washington, announced today that it has elected three new individuals to serve as directors on its board.

John Evans has served as President and Executive Director of the Oregon Bach Festival since 2007 and has guided the University of Oregon event to new levels of box office and critical success. Born and educated in Wales, Evans joined the OBF following a 21-year career with the BBC in London. A Britten scholar, Evans's book Journeying Boy: The Diaries of the Young Benjamin Britten was published by Faber and Faber in 2009. He also serves on the boards of the Britten Estate Ltd. and Chorus America.

Jennifer Paauwe-Riffe is a senior human resources consultant who owns Coach and Thrive, a Portland HR firm. Bilingual in Spanish and English, her specialty is cross cultural communication and training. Previously with Tompkins HR Group and AmeriBen/IEC Group, she lives in Portland and holds a bachelors degree in Spanish and Latin American Affairs from Oregon State University.

Brian Horay moved from Cleveland to Oregon to pursue a master's degree in art therapy at Marylhurst University. He worked as a mental health and addictions counselor for half a decade, and is presently employed at New Seasons Market. Brian is the creator of the Classical Beaver (<http://classicalbeaver.wordpress.com/>), a blog devoted to the Oregon Symphony. His obsession with our hometown orchestra is rivaled only by his passion for All Classical.

“Our new directors, John, Jennifer and Brian, add significant depth and breadth to the All Classical board,” said Board Chair John Mansfield. “I know that their unique talents and perspectives will be invaluable in helping All Classical serve its listeners.”

About All Classical 89.9 FM

The All Classical signal is broadcast in Portland on KQAC 89.9 FM, and re-broadcast in the The Dalles/Hood River region on KQHR 88.1 FM, in Lincoln City/Newport on KQOC 88.1 FM and in the Columbia Gorge East on 96.3 FM. All Classical Public Media's mission is to advance knowledge of and appreciation for classical music; to build and sustain culturally vibrant local and global communities around this art form; to reflect the spirit of the Pacific Northwest; and to foster integrity, quality and innovation in all that it does.
