

All Classical

P O R T L A N D

All Classical Portland is Portland, Oregon's classical radio station. Established in 1983, All Classical Portland's mission is to advance knowledge of and appreciation for classical music; to build and sustain culturally vibrant local and global communities around this art form; to reflect the spirit of the Pacific Northwest; and to foster integrity, quality, and innovation in all that we do.

Community Advisory Group Member Duties

The All Classical Portland Community Advisory Group (CAG), through an impartial and enthusiastic lens, serves to review and evaluate the station's mission, vision and values as represented by the content being delivered across every platform and as represented by community engagement activities. In order to better serve the needs of the station's audience, CAG members provide feedback, impressions and input when necessary on how to enhance the connection All Classical Portland makes with the community it serves. The CAG is solely an advisory body; the role does not extend to control the management, operation, or finances of All Classical Portland. The CAG is an independent and autonomous advisory group, distinctly separate from the Board of Directors, with no financial, legal or fiduciary role.

The composition of the CAG reflects the diversity of All Classical Portland's audience and ideally includes members from the Portland Metro, Central Coast and Columbia Gorge communities with a maximum number of twelve members. Membership is solely available by direct invitation from All Classical Portland's Director of Community Engagement.

CAG meetings are open to the public; meeting dates and times are posted on the All Classical Portland website. CAG minutes and deliberations are made available to the All Classical Portland Board of Directors and the public as requested.

CAG Member Qualifications:

- Passion: cares deeply about the station's well-being and sustainability
- Enthusiasm: imparts awareness of and knowledge about the station to the public
- Accountability: is reliable, communicative, punctual to meetings, and efficient
- Curiosity: maintains an open mind and enjoys friendly debate
- Respect: friendly and respectful of other opinions
- Knowledge: stays informed about station programming and activities
- Stewardship: reflects the mission of All Classical Portland

Reports to: Director of Community Engagement

Time Commitment: The CAG meets four times per year for a ninety minute meeting under the direction of the Director of Community Engagement. Additional volunteer assignments may be requested on a case by case basis; most often these include representing the station at events.

Length of Appointment: Each CAG member's term will be two years, renewable once if both sides agree, with a minimum of two years off before reinstatement.

Expectations:

- CAG members inform themselves about All Classical Portland programming and activities by listening to the station frequently, familiarizing themselves with the All Classical Portland website, receiving the weekly eNotes, and following the station on social media.
- CAG members take an active role in recommending candidates to join the group, and make every effort to secure a replacement in advance of their end of term.
- CAG members are also donors to the station.

Benefits: CAG members enjoy unique access to station strategic planning and gain meaningful experiences that are beneficial for sitting on a committee or non-profit board. CAG members have access to private station events and opportunities throughout the year. They enjoy the benefits of contributing to a cause to which they are passionate, and have the opportunity to make new friends and contacts!
