Beyond word of mouth, general press coverage, or standard marketing and promotion, the stations of All Classical Portland address issues of cultural vitality, arts community viability, the significance of music as it relates to the human experience, health and education by dedicating significant airtime to conversations and performance to these community initiatives. These unique opportunities serve to enlighten a diverse audience within a broad region while deepening relationships with community partner organizations.

Special programming dealing with local issues include the following programs:

NORTHWEST PREVIEWS All Classical Portland's celebration of the local arts scene. A five-minute program highlighting arts events for the upcoming weekend and week ahead.

WHERE WE LIVE A monthly radio and web series that explores issues facing our community through an artistic lens, providing a greater awareness of the societal needs of our region.

ON DECK WITH YOUNG MUSICIANS A weekly interview with young classical performers from Oregon and Southwest Washington.
